Summary

“You’ve gotta dance like there’s nobody watching,
Love like you’ll never be hurt,
Sing like there’s nobody listening,
And live like it’s heaven on earth.” – William W. Purkey

"Game-plan:" Clear, Focused, Thorough: "Gather the facts, Analyze the facts, Make a plan; and Execute it triumphantly- THAT'S HOW YOU WIN A G.A.M.E!"- Frederick D. Thomas, Sr.

Winning is a choice, as much as having a positive mental attitude: if I choose to win, succeed, and be happy; then, and only then, will I arise to peaks, yet climbed, venture worlds unknown; and see THE LIFE, Who is worth living for: but I must not quit, in order to live, and live, again! I love to win; but I love to win people!

I never quit: I don't know how to. I learn how to win everyday- the other team may score a few points; but I know how to win, and win victoriously: violently and relentlessly removing all obstacles, in order to defeat the foe(s), take the prey; and return to camp, with rewards! This is why I will “never give up on a dream, just because of the time it will take to accomplish it. The time will pass anyway.” -Earl Nightingale

Why: "IT'S POSSIBLE!"- Les Brown

Experience

Coding Student

August 2014 - Present

I TRULY BELIEVE THAT EVERYONE SHOULD LEARN TO CODE (I plan to teach my children). I am actively pursuing courses (free/institutions); and even self-studies of my own. I have basic knowledge of CSS, HTML 5, and JavaScript (JS). I believe I would be best suited for the back-end vs front-end development; although, my goal is to be a full-stack developer.

I am keeping an open mind towards software engineering. I am currently learning Python, while still, keeping a focus effort of becoming more proficient in JavaScript- I believe that it is best (for me) to master one language, and then, learn other languages; but I am fascinated by Python, not necessarily being more intuitive than JS, but the library Python has to offer. I would most certainly support the argument that the gap between Python and JavaScript is not that aggressively large, as much as it is a push (just a learning curve to win).

As I told a party before, "This is not </>, this is not the <...> of the </>, it is only the </> of the <...>."

Caterer

September 2000 - April 2001 (7 months)

"PNC Arena[4] (originally Raleigh Entertainment & Sports Arena and formerly the RBC Center) is an indoor arena, located in Raleigh, North Carolina. The Arena seats 19,722 for basketball,[1] and 18,680 for ice hockey,[1] including 66 luxury suites and 2,000 club seats. The building has three concourses and includes a 300-seat restaurant.

It is home to the Carolina Hurricanes of the National Hockey League and the NC State Wolfpack men's basketball team of NCAA Division I. The arena neighbors Carter–Finley Stadium, home of Wolfpack Football; the North Carolina State Fairgrounds; and Dorton Arena (on the Fairgrounds). The arena also hosted the Carolina Cobras of the Arena Football League from 2000 to 2002. It is the fourth-largest arena in the ACC (after the Carrier Dome, KFC Yum Center, and the Dean Smith Center), and the third-largest designed specifically for basketball. Furthermore, it is the eighth-largest arena in the NCAA and the seventh-largest designed for basketball."

Crew, Crew Leader; and Manager Trainee (Second in class) at McDonald's Corporation

March 1997 - September 2000 (3 years 6 months)

At the age of 14, I worked as a crew member; but I was hit by a motor vehicle (hit and run case lost because of prejudice, and monetary influence: lawyer backed out of case). I return at the age of 15; and arose to management trainee position at the age of 17. I was given the role, less the pay, at the age of 18- and I was taken more seriously about higher management:

I scored second in my management class (by a fraction less of a point).

I was verbally offered opportunities company enrollment into "Hamburger University," in Chicago, IL, once I reached a certain level of management.
